DESCRIPTION

Un système basé sur la modularité libre de tous les nombreux éléments qui le constituent. Bancs, tables consoles, coffres aux diverses fonctions et pupitres qui, considérés individuellement s'adaptent parfaitement au sein de la maison alors que, considérés comme un système, deviennent parfaits pour les projets d'accueil. Les bancs sont caractérisés par leur élégance discrète, ils se démarquent grâce aux éléments subtils singuliers de l'assise revêtue de tissu, cuir ou cordage de cuir.
